St. Patrick's War Menu

By BETTY BARGLAY

A 1943 St. Patrick would most assuredly be a patriot. He would conserve on sugar and other rationed foods. So here are some St. Patrick's Day dinner suggestions that fit right into our war menus. Add your own meat or fish dish, your favorite vegetables — and you have a dinner fit for a king:

St. Patrick's Salad Bowl

2 cups mixed salad greens — lettuce, romaine, water-cress, spinach or chicory
2 cups orange slices
1/2 cup ham slivers
1/2 cup celery pieces
1/2 cup Lemon French Dressing

Cut the cold, crisp salad greens into small sized pieces, and the orange slices into fourths. Combine with ham, celery and dressing in large salad bowl. Toss lightly together. Serves 6.

Cheese Soufflé

8 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 cup grated American cheese
8 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored
8 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, salt, and milk in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 8 to 10 minutes after water boils again, stirring frequently. Add cheese and stir until melted. Cool slightly while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes, or until soufflé is firm. Serves 6.

Soufflés have party glamour but their temperamental tendency to slump without warning used to keep them from serving on party menus. Nowadays, by using quick-cooking tapioca, even a beginner cook can count on a perfect soufflé every time. Tapioca acts as a binder and provides dependable insurance against falling.

Peach Shortcakes

1 box (16 oz.) quick-frozen sliced peaches, thawed
4 hot shortcake biscuits, split and buttered
1/2 cup cream, whipped

Spread thawed peaches on lower halves of hot shortcake biscuits, top with upper halves and additional peaches. Garnish with whipped cream. Serves 4.

Quick-frozen sliced peaches are easy on the sugar quota, for they come to you all sweetened. The best way to thaw all quick-frozen fruits is to leave them in their cartons in the refrigerator for six to eight hours or to let the cartons stand in the kitchen at room temperature, where the fruits will thaw in about three and a half hours. If you're in a great hurry, take the fruit from the package and pry it apart gently with a silver fork, and it will thaw in about two and a half hours.

Café Au Lait

Use 1 1/2 heaping tablespoons ground, decaffeinated coffee to each cup (1/2 pint) water. Make by any method desired. If percolated, "perco" 18 to 20 minutes slowly and gently, or longer than ordinary coffee. Have ready a pot of hot milk. When serving, pour milk and coffee together into cup in equal amounts. If using decaffeinated coffee, drip grind, measure well-rounded tablespoon instead of heaping tablespoon. Café au Lait is a good "stretcher" to help make your ration go farther. It's a good idea to serve decaffeinated coffee, so that everyone can relax and nerves and drink his share of the precious brew without worry over sleeping problems.

"Leftover" Enricher

By Frances Lee Barton

LEFT-OVER dishes may be turned into delicious surprise dishes by carefully following this recipe for Spinach Ring. No sugar, very little butter, only one cup of milk — what more could you ask for during rationing days?

Spinach Ring

2 tablespoons butter; 1/2 cup quick-cooking tapioca; 1 1/2 teaspoons salt; 1 cup milk; 1/2 cup grated American cheese; 2 tablespoons minced onion; 2 eggs, well beaten; 1 cup drained cooked spinach, finely chopped; 1 cup grated raw carrots; 1 teaspoon vinegar; 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard; dash of pepper.

Combine butter, tapioca, salt, and milk in saucepan. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Add grated cheese, onion, eggs, spinach, carrots, vinegar, mustard, and pepper. Mix thoroughly. Turn into well-greased ring mold. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 50 minutes; or until firm. Unmold and fill center with creamed fish, left-over meat, or mushrooms. Serves 6.

At last, they hear the alert — the citizenry runs to shelters, and the flyers drop their disguises and don their R. A. F. uniforms. Stealthily, they climb down into the little boat and they escape the Nazi patrol. Toward dawn, they are in danger again — they reach the German Rescue Buoy and are faced by Nazi aviators shot down during the night. But they have escaped from tight places before and they do it again — and this time they are really on their way back to England,

"CHOCOLATE SOLDIER" AT ALCAZAR

"The Chocolate Soldier," one of the stage's most outstanding musical comedies, which opened a successful engagement at the Alcazar theatre, Sunday night, is at this time, a particularly topical and tuneful stage offering.

The first act of the Oscar Straus operetta depicts three lonesome women in a colorful and voluptuous boudoir bemoaning the fact that their sweethearts are away at war and they are left alone to sigh and lament the absence of their loved ones. In this case, however, the grief is not because of fear of wounds or death, but because of the acutely felt lack of love element.

It is then that Charles Purcell, who again plays the title role of Lieutenant Bumerlie, in which he has appeared more than 2000 times, in fleeing from enemy officers, climbs the fire escape into the boudoir and begs the ladies to hide him. From that time on the fun is fast and furious with spice injected into the scene by the three men-hungry women all trying to make love to the dashing lieutenant at the same time.

Virginia Card is the primadonna, and it is she who eventually wins the heart and hand of the romantic chocolate soldier. Other prominent singers and actors in the cast are Ruth Gillette, Bonnie Emerle, Nita Ann Carol, Alonzo Price, Earl Covert and Gene Ramsey. A splendid chorus and clever ballet complete the stage picture.

The costumes are rich and colorful, and the scenery distinctly appropriate depicting the Bulgaria of a distant day with its peasants, soldiers, officers and sensuous women. The delightfully tuneful Straus music heard under the direction of the distinguished Cecil Stewart in such glamorous atmosphere makes "The Chocolate Soldier" the type of show always welcomed everywhere, and is attracting banner audiences to the Alcazar.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

WHAT kind of a world will emerge from this war, once the fascists of Germany and Italy and Japan and their satellites have been crushed by the democratic powers?

SIR NORMAN ANGELL

This is the question Sir Norman Angell attempts to answer in his new book, "Let The People Know," which the Book-of-the-Month Club has selected for February, along with "Guadalcanal Diary" by Richard Tregaskis.

Sir Norman Angell was once a newspaper man in America, and later a disciple of Lord Northcliffe. In England he worked with Ramsay MacDonald in the founding of the Union for Democratic control in England. He was, in 1918, one of the inspirers of the League of Free Nations Association. And in 1934, on the basis of long years of service in the cause of international peace and justice, he was awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace.

"Let The People Know" is a latter day version of Angell's notable work of 1908, "The Great Illusion," in which he was one of the first to point out that war for conquest does not pay. In this present book-of-the-month, he goes into the reasons why we, in America, have allied ourselves with Britain, Russia and China, and whether, in the end, the world itself will go back to the old theory of a "balance of power," or whether there will be a coalition of the nations to enforce the peace. It is a book that is apt to arouse debate and discussion, not only among us ordinary citizens who read it, but in the legislative halls of both Britain and America, and perhaps eventually at the peace table itself.

As a young man, Sir Norman worked for a while as a farmhand on a ranch in Southern California. (English by birth, he was a boy immigrant to the United States.) One day, as he was pitching hay under a broiling sun, he heard a new worker ask the foreman where he could sleep that night. The boss beckoned to young Angell. "This guy wants to know where he can sleep tonight," he said. "We got 175,000 acres on this ranch, and he wants to know where he can find a place to sleep!"

Here's another interesting story Sir Norman tells: At the time the war broke out, he owned a house on a little island off the East Coast of England. Long before the blitz on London, his house was a target for German bombs. It was not until some time after it had been destroyed that he realized why.

It seems that Sir Norman is an amateur bricklayer, and one of his hobbies was building a garden wall around his island home, with appropriately spaced sun decks where he could take the air. From the ship, however, this brick wall, with its regularly spaced open areas, looked exactly like a military fortification, and so the Luftwaffe decided to put it out of business. It was a bit astonishing, Sir Norman confesses, that he, who had always worked for peace, should have had his garden wall mistaken for a military fort.

AT WINTERLAND

Members of the adult division of San Francisco's Skate and Ski club, brought another skating season for their group to a close with a party held at Winterland after the regular club session, Monday night.

The Skate and Ski Club Intermediates, a teen-age division of the senior club, are continuing their regular Thursday night meetings at the big rink, with Len Fogassey, Winterland head instructor, in charge. They are planning to hold several tests for the more advanced members of the group as well as tests in ice dancing, which will occupy their attention for the balance of the season.

FEWER NEEDY THIS YEAR

In San Mateo county during January, 1,176 people received aid to the needy aged, compared with 1,199 who received such aid during January, 1942, California Taxpayers' Association stated, today, making public its study of relief trends and current discussions of expansion of the aged aid program in California.

Thrilling War
Film At Daly City

"One of Our Aircraft Is Missing," the current feature attraction at the Daly City theatre, is providing moviegoers with thrills of a lifetime. For this new Alexander Korda action picture, which United Artists is releasing, was written, produced and directed by Michael Powell, the man who was responsible for the enormously successful "The Invaders."

This adventure-packed film tells about the extraordinary exploits of six R. A. F. flyers who are forced to bail out in Holland after successfully carrying out a bombing mission in Stuttgart, Germany. They are discovered by a group of Dutch children, who take the flyers to a nearby village for questioning by their schoolteacher.

Slowly, they convince this business-like young lady that they aren't Nazis masquerading as Englishmen, and soon afterward they begin their dangerous journey to the seacoast and safety. How they are aided by the Dutch underground, and how they manage to outwit the Nazis at their heels and how they are finally delivered into the hands of a daring woman who plays a lone game provides the film with some of its most breath-taking and exciting sequences.

One of the biggest scenes in "One of Our Aircraft Is Missing" takes place at the seacoast where the flyers are taking refuge in a secret apartment, literally surrounded by the Army of Occupation. Day after day, they wait patiently for a bombing raid from across the Channel — for this is their signal for their final, desperate attempt to escape to the SPEED UP!

Lighting of pipes, cigars and cigarettes will not be so leisurely in the future.

A War Production Board order calls for the snipping of from one-sixteenth to one-quarter inch off matches. By this seemingly trivial saving, about 380 carloads of lumber will be made available for other uses, according to an estimate of the Chemicals division of WFB.

The order also limits wire stitching on match books, saves phosphorus by restricting the striking surface and scales down the amount of virgin pulp used by the industry.

Let's Get It Over With

One million five hundred thousand persons in Northern California, from Kern county to the Oregon line, must file income tax returns by March 15, no matter what Congress does regarding "pay-as-you-go" plans for the future. It's human to postpone unpleasantness until the last possible minute, or a few seconds later. This year we can't afford to be human.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten per cent every pay day.

WAR FUND 1943
Give double this year if you can.

SAFEWAY is headquarters for FRESH COFFEE
FRESHNESS in Coffee is the Thing
That Counts Most During Rationing

Coffee-Wise

In coffee, it's quality rather than quantity that counts. That's why the coffee-wise are making sure that every cup of coffee they serve offers the very best there is in coffee... flavor, aroma, inspiration and sheer taste joy.

To make every cup a super one, choose the brand carefully, make the coffee with meticulous care, and drink it slowly, musing over its goodness. One really delicious cup of coffee is worth any number of inferior cups.

BUYING COFFEE—Get your coffee only as you need it, and your coffee will be fresher. Always be certain to get the right grind for your method of brewing coffee.

Regular Grind for percolator or for boiling... Drip Grind for drip and vacuum makers. To hold its fragrance and flavor, keep your coffee in a tightly covered can or jar. If bought in packages or bags, pour it into a canister or fruit jar and keep covered.

A CLEAN POT pays dividends in flavor. Scrub yours well so that there are no specks of old coffee lurking in the basket or in the sides of the pot.

MEASURE ACCURATELY both the coffee and the water, and use standard measures for uniform results. For average coffee strength we suggest 1½ to 2 level tablespoons of coffee for each standard measuring cup of water. (A standard measuring cup equals from 1½ to 1¾ dinner cups.) However the quantity of coffee to use depends on how strong you like it. You'll not get as good results if you use a large pot for a small amount of coffee. If you want only a small amount of coffee, make it in a sauce pan using the good old-fashioned boiled method. Avoid leftover coffee.

Percolator Coffee—Use either hot or cold water. Start timing when the "perk" begins and "perk" slowly for 7 to 10 minutes.

Boiled Coffee—Add coffee to cold water in pot or sauce pan, let it come to a rolling boil, remove from heat and allow a few minutes for the grounds to settle. Strain and serve.

Drip Coffee—Pre-heat pot. Pour boiling water into top compartment and allow to drip slowly through the coffee. The dripping time should take from 6 to 8 minutes to obtain the peak of flavor and aroma.

Vacuum Coffee—Have water in lower bowl boiling before fitting upper bowl in place. Begin timing when the water rises and comes in contact with the coffee. Control the heat so that the coffee and water are infused together in from 5 to 7 minutes.

Ration Stamp Required on All Coffee Sales

Point Ration Information

If you're worrying about point rationing, here are a few ideas that will help you. You have your War Ration Book No. 2 one for each member of your family. Have you clipped the point value charts from the newspapers? You should and you'll find it will save you time, money and points if you study them at home.

While it's not easy to plan a week's menu complete in every detail, still, do the best you can, the same as you've always done. Now look over your point ration chart and after each rationed item write its point value and see how you're making out. Notice the low point items. These are products which are the most plentiful and will make your points go farther.

If your total number of points is more than your weekly point allowance, better change your menu, and substitute non-rationed fresh fruits and vegetables, or a bowl of home-made soup instead of canned. And if you must use some foods over and over again, vary them by looking up new recipes.

Don't look on the gloomy side... we still have several hundred food items that are not rationed... from which to build good-tasting, nutritious meals. We'll get used to this idea in no time, just as we did with sugar, coffee and gasoline rationing.

TO WIN
THE WAR!

You can help to relieve the shortage and make more food available for our fighting men by raising chickens or rabbits at your home. Turn your back yard into a war plant by helping to grow food for your own needs.

FARMERS MEAT COMPANY

K. & D. FRUITS & VEGETABLES

Fresh produce, both vegetables and fruits, has become increasingly important with the past weeks' developments in food rationing. To make available to the armed services a larger percentage of the processed foods, it will be necessary for housewives to depend more than ever upon these items in their fresh form.

We bring to Daly City a supply of these healthful foods every morning, fresh and crisp from the growers. They will provide members of your household with elements needed for a well-balanced diet, and conserve point stamps for out-of-season items.

A large assortment of luncheon meats has also been added to assist you in food shopping. We stock all the popular kinds of cold meats and cheese for your needs. Use them to augment your fresh meat supply.
